DS- 160 Nonimmigrant Visa Application

DS- 160 Nonimmigrant Visa Application ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Jun 21st 2011

The DS-160, Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application, is a fully integrated online application form that is used to collect the necessary application information from a person seeking a nonimmigrant visa for temporary travel to the United States. Form DS-160 is submitted electronically to the Department of State website via the Internet. Consular Officers use the information entered on the DS-160 to process the visa application and, combined with a personal interview, determine an applicant's eligibility for a nonimmigrant visa.

Visa applicants must submit a completed DS-160, Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application for all nonimmigrant visa categories (except for K, N, S, T, and U categories, which still use the Form DS-156, Nonimmigrant Visa Application).

- Review the Frequently Asked Questions ^[2] for instructions about using the DS-160.
- Access the online DS-160 by clicking: Consular Electronic Application Center website. ^[3]

Please note that after you have completed the DS-160, you need to take these next steps:

- Print and keep the DS-160 barcode page. (You will not need to print the full application.)
- Visit the U.S. Embassy or Consulate ^[4] website where you will apply for additional country-specific instructions. Before an interview, nonimmigrant visa applicants, with few exceptions, need to:

Schedule an interview appointment; and

Pay the visa application processing fee.
